GRIDIRON STARS ON INDEPENDENT TEAM

Eighth Ward Boys are All Well Known Local Football Players.

The Eighth Ward Independents will have one of the fastest football squads to be found in this part of the state this fall, as all of the men are former local stars of the gridiron. The team will be in charge of Ralph Henderson, an old star of the F. H. S. and F. S. N. S.

Dick Watson and Tom Helmick will hold down the terminal positions, Paul Barker and Dick Kelly will take care of the tackle, and the guard positions will be ably filled by Miles Mills, Fred Hawkins and John Stewart. Bailey Hupp will play the responsible position of center and Jim Ridgely, "Bull Dog" Hall, a former Army player, Glen Noy, "Goat" Ridgely, John Ridgely, John Laughlin, Noble Layman, Brownie Hamilton and Ralph Henderson will make up the back field.

And candidates wishing to try out for the team will be given the chance upon request. The management of the team would like to book games with any good, fast teams. Further information regarding the team can be received from Elmer Ridgely, manager, at 409 Locust avenue.

Uniontown Tennis Tournery Sept. 6-9

A number of local tennis players have received invitations to the fifth annual open tennis tournament to be given by the Uniontown Tennis club September 6, 7, 8 and 9. The events are men's singles and doubles and mixed doubles. The clay courts of the Uniontown club are favorably known in this section and some of the local men may enter the tourney, the entries to which close September 5, being the date set for the drawings.

SISTERS WAGE DUEL ON LINKS.

MISS ELAINE ROSENTHAL

BY HAROLD JOHNSON

Sisterly love was temporarily shelved on the links of the Kent Country club, Grand Rapids, Mich., when Miss Elaine Rosenthal, western titleholder, defeated Mrs. Ernest Belfield in the early rounds of the women's golf championship, 7 and 6.

Both are members of the Ravinloo club, Chicago. Each scored a victory in the opening day's play and they were paired for the second day. Mrs. Belfield was unable to keep pace with Miss Elaine. The champion won the first hole when her sister took three putts, and a fine four on the second hole, 391 yards, put Miss Rosenthal 2 up.

Mrs. Belfield was stymied at the seventh hole and lost, 7-6, while on the ninth green she took three putts and shelved in six. Miss Rosenthal getting trapped. Miss Belfield took the tenth hole, 310 yards, with a four, but her sister won the next two, 340 and 345 yards, in four and the match was over.

Miss Rosenthal was later eliminated by Mrs. Fred Letts of Cincinnati.

Johnny—"Papa, would you be glad if I saved a dollar for you?" Papa—"Certainly, my son."

Johnny—"Well, I saved it for you, all right. You said if I brought a first-class report from my teacher this week you would give me a dollar, and I didn't bring it."

MANY A BALLROOM GOWN IN COVERING A WAR! HEART REACHES ITS LIMIT.

Well Trained. A Scottish farmer of a miserly disposition bought a horse at a fair. On the way home he thought a drink of water would refresh it, so he got a pail of water; but the animal would not take it. When he got home, he offered it a fed of corn; but, to his surprise, it would not touch that, either.

"Well," he muttered to himself, "if only I was sure ye were a guld worker, ye're the verra horse for me."

"I wish I had money enough to get married," he remarked. She looked down and blushed. "And what—would—you do?" she asked looking very hard at the carpet.

"I would spend it traveling," he replied.

A Narrow Escape. Friday evening a runaway horse and mule passed down Main street and instead of making the turn at the end of the street they followed the traction line. When they came to the bridge crossing over the pike the horse got over safely but the mule was not so lucky. It fell between the ties and was unable to extricate itself. The Clarksburg car was about due and as there is a sharp curve at the approach of the bridge could not have stopped in time to prevent a wreck. Some citizens, however, discovered the mule and by quick work succeeded in getting it off the bridge in time to prevent a wreck. The animals belonged to the Hutchinson mine of the Consolidation Coal company.

The Original Turkish Blend
20 for 15c
Yes, SENSIBLE—because it's comfortable
THERE are other good tasting cigarettes. Fatima isn't the only good one. But when it comes to comfort—there is probably no other cigarette in the world quite the equal of Fatimas. Fatima's Turkish Blend is so delicately balanced that it leaves a man feeling keen and fit even after a long-smoking day. You could prove this for yourself.
